

At the Crossroads”

When we first moved to Virginia, I was appointed to a small rural church on a back road that was off of a back road. When asking for directions to the closest grocery store (which happened to be over 15 miles away) I was told to turn right at the crossroads just past the big old tree. The only problem: there were just too many big oak trees at every crossroads I came upon.

“Doesn’t the road have a name?”

“Never took the time to get to know the road’s name,” I was told. “Just turn right at the crossroads just past the big old tree.”

With much trial and error, I eventually learned which crossroads and which big old tree. Often times, our Christian journeys can be a lot like finding the crossroads just past that big old tree. That is why I believe Lent should be such an integral part of our Christian faith. The disciples themselves, as they tried to follow Jesus, often times found themselves lost on the crossroads; yet through the aid of the Holy Spirit’s leading, they eventually found that “big old tree” which would make all the difference in their lives. That “big old tree,” of course for them was the cross itself. There their lives intersected with that of Christ’s.

Many of those involved in the story of the Passion of Christ came to a crossroads and had to decide which way to go. Some chose well, some did not, and the stories of each of these experiences at various crossroads help us to know what to do and what not to do when we encounter similar crossroads in our own lives.

This year as Oaklette Church journeys through the weeks of Lent we will be exploring many of the crossroads the disciples themselves encountered. It is my prayer that through our journey together this Lent our Sunday morning worship celebrations will reveal to us in some way how Christ and his cross lead us to decide the path of God’s will for us.

In the words of the Apostle Paul:

“Love from the center of who you are. Don’t Fake It!” (Romans 12:9)

BREAKFAST AT DENNY'S

In past months Oaklette has been encouraging you and your friends to gather for a 'social breakfast' at the Battlefield Blvd. Denny's located in front of the Home Depot on the second Friday of every month. In March that's Friday, the 8th! This is an opportunity for the good folk of Oaklette to "get outside of the castle" and into the neighborhood of which we are a part. No reservations are necessary! Just show up and eat breakfast (or a snack). Breakfast is on you. Debbie Rippard will be there to greet you at 9:00AM!

MARDIS GRAS PANCAKE BRUNCH/LUNCH

On Sunday, March 3rd both the Oaklette and Spirit of Truth Ministries congregations will be worshipping and eating together. This is our first Fellowship Event of the New Year! The Shepherd's Flock Sunday school class will be hosting this year's Mardi Gras Pancake Brunch/Lunch following the 11:00 worship celebration. No food is needed. Just bring your appetite and join us as we break bread (pancakes) together.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE

The season of Lent will soon be upon us! On Wednesday, March 6th you are invited to join Dr. Tim for a special Ash Wednesday Imposition of Ashes Worship Service. It will be held at 6:30PM in the sanctuary.

MAYBERRY CHURCH

Sunday at 6:30PM - Fellowship Hall

Come and join this exciting gathering of believers growing in their journey with Christ. Using the Bible and classic episodes of “The Andy Griffith Show” and “Mayberry RFD” Oaklette is offering this unique and award-winning opportunity for south Hampton Roads. Our worship themes and episodes for February are as follows:

- March 3 – Episode: “Sister Cities” – Mayberry gets an invitation to join a sister city program. The citizens of Mayberry embrace the idea and arrange for a delegation from their Mexican sister city, Porto Bello to visit Mayberry. Theme: Putting on Airs. Scripture: 1 Peter 5:6 (CEV) – “So be content with who you are, and don’t put on airs.”
- March 10 – Episode: “The New Housekeeper” – Sheriff Taylor and his young son Opie are in need of a new housekeeper. Andy’s Aunt Bee looks like the perfect candidate and moves in, but her presence causes friction with Opie. Theme: Is Anyone Listening to Me? Scripture: Psalm 102:1–2 (MSG) – “GOD, listen! Listen to my prayer, listen to the pain in my cries. Don’t turn your back on me just when I need you so desperately. Pay attention! This is a cry for help! And hurry—this can’t wait!”
- March 17 – Episode: “The Manhunt” – Andy and his bumbling deputy, Barney Fife, offer to help track down an escaped convict, but the captain of the state police scoffs at the small-town sheriff’s help. Theme: Unforsaken. Scripture: 2 Chronicles 28:20 (TLB) – “Don’t be frightened by the size of the task, for the Lord my God is with you; he will not forsake you. He will see to it that everything is finished correctly.”
- March 24 – Episode: “Guitar Player” – A gifted musician who has self-doubts about his talent gets a chance at stardom — with a little push from Andy. Theme: Putting Our Gifts to Good Use. Scripture: 2 Timothy 1:7 (MSG) – “God doesn’t want us to be shy with his gifts, but bold and loving and sensible.”
- March 31 – Episode: “Ellie Comes to Town” – When Mayberry’s local pharmacist falls ill, his niece steps in as a temporary replacement and creates turmoil with the town’s resident hypochondriac. Theme: The Healing Power of Love. Scripture: John 11:4 (MSG) – “This sickness is not fatal. It will become an occasion to show God’s glory by glorifying God’s Son.”

“The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry”

Best buddies Dustin, Albert, and Mark are twelve-year-old boys looking forward to a summer of fun in 1970. When Dustin mows the lawn of seventy-five-year-old Jonathan Sperry, a man he has seen at church, a unique friendship develops. What happens the rest of this summer is something Dustin and his friends will never forget!

THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER OFFERING

Please remember to turn in your Thirty Pieces of Silver bags by Easter Sunday! Our goal this year is to raise enough funds to provide 14,000 meals to Rise Against Hunger (formerly Stop Hunger Now). Packaging of these meals will be done by us in late September.

2ND ANNUAL EASTER EGG HUNT

This year’s Easter Egg Hunt will be held again at the Cuffee Community Center located on the corner Windy and Border Roads on Saturday, April 13. We will begin our festivities for our neighbors at 12 noon. This year we will also be serving hot dogs and hamburgers. We are in need of Easter candies, eggs and financial donations as well as volunteers! Please see either Ree Enlow or Sheri Antoskow for more information.

EVERYBODY’S BIRTHDAY PARTY/STAFF APPRECIATION SUNDAY

Just like last year Oaklette and Spirit of Truth Ministry will be celebrating Everybody’s Birthday Party together again this year! This year, however we will be combining it with Staff Appreciation Sunday. Following the 11:00 AM Worship Celebration on Sunday, May 3rd both congregations (who will be participating in worship together) will gather in the Fellowship Hall. Please bring a covered dish (salad, casserole, etc.) to share! Desserts (birthday cakes) will be provided by volunteers. A sign-up sheet for the cakes will be posted on bulletin board across the hall from the offices. Each birthday cake volunteer is also responsible for decorating their table.

KITS FOR CONFERENCE

Virginia’s Annual Conference is fast approaching and that means we need to gather our Kits for Conference. There is currently an appeal from UMCOR for Health and Bedding kits. While these are currently in high demand, the other kits that are being collected include Birthing, Cleaning, Layette, School, and Sewing. Kits can be placed in the Church Parlor across the hall from the Pastor’s Office. All kits need to be at church by Sunday, June 9th.

NEW MEMBER ORIENTATION

Starting on Sunday March 17th Dr. Tim will be hosting a New Member Orientation in his office at 5:00 PM. Orientation will meet every Sunday through April 7th. [PLEASE NOTE: On Saturday April 13th there will be a mission immersion experience with our Easter Egg Hunt at the Cuffee Community Center. Times will be announced at a later date.] New Members will be received into the church on Easter Sunday April 21st.

Thank you to everyone for the prayers, phone calls and cards during my recent illness.

Doris Doughten

The United Methodist Women are collecting donations for the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial in March. Please take your donations to the circle meetings or get them to Judy Litten by the end of the month.

The focus for this year is to promote well-being and equal opportunities for children and youth both here at home and around the world. The programs include promoting access to education, healthy living through adequate food supplies, education on substance abuse, community education to end harmful traditions, opportunities for children with disabilities to live wholesome lives at home. Projects like the Wesley Education Center in Cincinnati, OH, One National Mission Institution in Laredo, TX, and Days for Girls in Kenya are among the many funded by this offering.

CHRISTIAN SYMBOL CHALICE & CROSS

The chalice with a cross rising from it symbolizes Christ's obedient suffering, even unto death. The cross is called a "Passion cross," with pointed ends that represent suffering. We remember that in the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus begged his Father that the "cup" of suffering be taken from him. But ultimately, he prayed, "Not as I will, but as you will." Matthew 26:39 NIV

The United Methodist Women's Yard Sale will be held on Saturday, May 18, 2019. Please start saving items at home for the sale.

FAITH JOURNEY

A family was heading on vacation: two little ones were nestled in car seats; the van was packed. As Dad locked the house and Mom secured the garage, an adult neighbor the kids knew walked up and spoke through an open window. "Where are you going?" The kids shrugged. "Well, what road are you taking?" the friend asked with a knowing smile. Of course, they had no idea. "Do you know where you'll eat today, or where you'll spend the night?" Blank stares. Then the friend asked, "Who are you traveling with?" The children broke into grins and shouted, "Mommy and Daddy!"

On the journey of faith, we don't know precisely where we're headed or how all our needs will be met. But we know who we're traveling with: our loving God who is fully aware of the twists and turns ahead; the loving Parent who promises to care for us wherever we go.

DAYS OF CREATION

Play this game to remember when God made each of his masterpieces.

What you need:

- Paper
- Rulers
- Pencils
- Markers or crayons
- Dice
- Bibles (open to Genesis 1:1-2:3 for reference)

What you do:

1. To make game boards, draw a grid with four rows and seven columns, totaling 28 squares.
2. Across the top row, write DAY 1 in the first square and continue through DAY 7.
3. Take turns rolling one die, or all players can roll at once. For the number rolled, draw something God created on that day (in the correct column).
4. When you fill an entire row, draw a smiley face in the DAY 7 square. The first player with two smileys wins.

BIBLE QUIZ

In John 9, Jesus' disciples ask whether a certain man or his parents sinned, causing his disability. Jesus says, "Neither... [It was] so that God's works might be revealed him him." What was this man's disability?

- A. Deafness
- B. Lameness
- C. Blindness
- D. Epilepsy

BINGO! OAKLETTE UMC PUTS ITS OWN SPIN ON NEST

(as published in the Virginian-Pilot Clipper, February 10, 2019)

For 25 years now, the congregation of Oaklette United Methodist Church has tried to help the area's homeless by adding a little fun to the church's commitment to NEST.

The church recently completed its fulfilling, yet tiring week for the Norfolk Emergency Shelter Team. Providing just the basics requires a lot of preparation – meals and housing for Oaklette's maximum 44 guests.

But these volunteers go the extra mile, starting with night two: bingo after dinner.

Brenda Swoope, aka “the Bingo Queen,” is a retired teacher who now works two part-time jobs, along with volunteering and organizing this unique bingo event. The guests play two laminated cards at a time, using macaroni as markers. Four or five volunteers help the guests. Winners choose their own prizes from a table that includes clothing items, book bags and bus tickets. Friends and other churches donate clothes and hygiene items. “St. Matthews Catholic Church donated socks that lasted for four years,” Swoope said. On the last night, guests might win two prizes. “I don’t clear the cards until everyone has won,” Swoope said. Swoope shops all year round at thrift stores and sales to get the best gifts she can buy with the church’s limited funds. “The holy spirit gives me what I got,” said Swoope of her energetic nature.

NEST, a coalition of Norfolk churches, synagogues and community groups, was founded by the Unitarian church of Norfolk in 1992. It houses the homeless overnight – with floor mats and blankets – during the winter months, from November until early April. While Swoope brings a little light to the darkness of homelessness, she’s not alone in the exhausting organizational details. Others have been instrumental leaders from NEST’s inception at Oaklette.

Debbie Rippard said she’s had empathy for the homeless since she read a magazine article about homeless people in the Midwest relocating to California because of more favorable housing rules. “It stuck with me,” she said. “I started wondering about homelessness in our area. A co-worker at the time talked about her church’s program and I looked into it. Our church became the first Chesapeake participant.” Oaklette does not participate in CAST (the Chesapeake Area Shelter team) because it caters to families, which the church prefers not to accommodate. Rippard literally rules the roost. She stands on a stool on the week’s first night, quieting the guests and laying down the law. Respect the property and each other, she says in a firm way. Common problems include alcoholism, mental illness and drug use. When the church first became involved, some volunteers were concerned for their safety, Rippard said. “I’ve never felt threatened. They are very protective of me. I show them respect; they show me respect.”

A lot of them have jobs; some of them are educated. “Unfortunately, we often see the same faces (year after year).” Besides the basics of food and shelter, the Rev. Tim Hazlett is usually there for spiritual guidance. And other Oaklette volunteers provide companionship, reading material, cards, puzzles and Bibles. Support has come from the Coast Guard, Chesapeake Sheriff's Office, and Virginia Wesleyan University students. "No one wants to talk to the homeless on the street," said freshman student Adela Huezo, whose parents got her involved with various volunteer programs at age 5. She enjoys the overnight shift, staying awake to play cards or just talk with guests who can't or don't want to sleep. "It's really an eye opener," she said.

Barbara Bennett has handled all of Oaklette's meals for NEST since its inception. She also manages the food pantry. She made a deal with Rippard early on: "She doesn't like to cook and 'Cook' was my maiden name," Bennett said. "I was born into it. My parents managed their church's food pantry, so I've been around it all my life." Bennett prepares the menus and posts them on the church's sizable refrigerator. She schedules volunteers, who take turns serving dinner, breakfast and a to-go bag lunch (a juice box, a piece of fruit, crackers and a hard-boiled egg). "One volunteer cooks eggs all week," Swoope said. Some volunteers use the church's kitchen to prepare the meals; others make it at home and bring it in. "One year we had a snowy night, and the folks who made the food wouldn't drive to the church," Bennett recalled. "I did a little prayer, buckled up my bravery, and drove out in the snow to get the food." This year the Vietnamese Community of Hampton Roads made a very popular dinner. Bennett already has next year's volunteers lined up. "My husband passed away eight years ago, and he used to ask me every year when I was going to stop. God is the one who gives me the strength to do this," she said.

The single, adult guests always include more men than women. A bus picks them up in downtown Norfolk at 7 p.m. If there are more guests than the bus can hold, they have a lottery, Rippard said. Some participating facilities take on 60 to 80 guests. Guests are given a health and beauty bag on the second night of their stay. It includes personal hygiene items. There are no shower facilities at Oaklette, but guests are welcome to freshen up in the bathroom. It's lights out at 10 p.m., and a fast night passes before the fellowship hall is relighted at 5:30 a.m. for breakfast. The bus arrives at 6:30, and guests are sent off with a bag lunch and some donated $5 gift cards for McDonalds or Dollar Tree. The demands and costs keep going up – for 25 years and counting – on what could be a burden for an aging congregation. "We've been lucky," Rippard said. "We wouldn't be successful if other churches didn't help us."

THE COMFORT OF OUR MIDDLE-C GOD

During college, while living in a boarding house, author Lloyd Douglas befriended a retiree. The man, a homebound former music teacher, shared a morning ritual with Douglas, who would walk down to the man's floor, open his door and ask, "What's the good news?"

Every day the man responded by tapping a tuning fork against his wheelchair and saying, "that's middle C. It was middle C yesterday. It will be middle C tomorrow. It will be middle C a thousand years from now. The tenor upstairs sings flat, the piano across the hall is out of tune, but, my friend, that is middle C!"

If middle C's pitch value isn't exactly 261.63 Hz, then your piano needs to be tuned. How comforting that dependability is for musicians – and their listeners.

Like middle C, God is steadfast and reliable. In this fast-paced world, praise God for the good news he declares to us: "I the LORD do not change." (Malachi 3:6).

JOE PEELE HONORED WITH THE WILLIAM FRANKLIN ROUNTREY AWARD

Joe Peele joined the church in 2007, and received the honor for all of his contributions to Oaklette United Methodist Church.

PROJECTS WORKED ON BY JOE PEELE

- *Moved “bean” storage shed and combined it with the “yount” shed, and reroofed and restained both.
- *Removed and relocated all of the exposed wiring along the back of the building.
- *Designed a support frame for the Rose window and added spot lights to the window.
- *Renovated the picnic pavilion with new support posts and roof, while also painting and staining the pavilion.
- *Added a roof, shingles, and aluminum trim to the canopy at the double doors at the sanctuary end of the classroom hallway.
- *Has worked on several projects in the parsonage and in the homes of several church members.
- *Removed, refinished, and reinstalled the front doors to the sanctuary.
- *In the kitchen, he cleaned the hood and filters, and installed the chain and pulley system for the coiling window. He also repaired the dishwasher in the kitchen.
- *Started renovating the entrance hall in the sanctuary/office area. Added a storage closet under the stair tower, installing new floor finish, priming and painting, and installing light fixtures.
- *Helped initiate and manage “Family Movie Nights.”

These are just to name a few of the projects Joe has dedicated tireless hours of his time to. We are thankful and extend our gratitude for the blessing Joe is to Oaklette.
